Become one of our Corporate Partners

Now is the time to get involved.

Multi award winning Cranleigh Arts offers an unbeatable and unique opportunity for corporate engagement.

Becoming a corporate partner will enhance your reputation as a principal supporter of the Cranleigh Arts community.

Your support will strengthen our future and enable us to develop and enrich the range of programmes and services we offer

To enrich, entertain & inspire our community...

Who we are:

A vibrant, volunteer-led charity and a creative hub for all ages. We punch well above our weight, delivering an exciting and diverse programme that appeals to everyone—from the youngest music fans to lifelong culture lovers.

We have over 1000 visitors per week

Over 50,000 visitors per year

We sell over 2000 tickets per month

Over 25 classes and community events per week.

Our stage has welcomed leading lights from the arts and beyond. Including Eric Clapton, Romesh Ranganathan, Van Morrison, Kate Winslet and Damon Hill to name but a few.

Join us in fostering creativity and resilience in our community by becoming a corporate sponsor and help sustain vital programmes during these challenging times.

By working in partnership with us, your business can:

- Reach a wide and diverse audience through our marketing channels
- Strengthen your Corporate Social Responsibility commitment
- Connect and network with other local businesses and individuals
- Build meaningful links within the community
- Raise your visibility through high-profile branding opportunities
- Enhance your brand values by partnering with an innovative, modern, community-oriented organization largely run by award winning volunteers
